

PH-SG PEN PALLING PROJECT

This project is initiated by Team Osup of the CCC-HHH-SMU Program. They are with high hopes that through this program, youth participants from the Philippines and Singapore will not just overcome disconnectedness in this time of global pandemic but also grow together in appreciation of both cultures.

WHAT IS PEN PALLING?

Pen palling is the act of writing letters to someone you don't know, often from a different country.

WHY PEN PAL CAN BE INTERESTING?

There are a lot of reasons on why pen palling can be interesting! Having a pen pal advances many fundamental abilities including communication, compassion, and mutual concern. It also encourages the ability to explore and find common connections--a key element of true friendship! Moreover, we can overcome disconnectedness especially in this time of pandemic.

WHO ARE QUALIFIED TO PEN PAL IN THIS PROJECT?

This project targets youths from the Philippines and youths from Singapore preferably aging 18-27.
